

Welcome

Welcome to The Room Studio

The Room studio is owned by mixing engineer Philippe Weiss.

The studio combine an SSL 4056 G mixing consoles with a colorful array of vintage gear, and carefully optimized ProTools HD systems. Our studio has one of Switzerland finest control room. We make no compromises on sound quality starting from the cabling to the converters. All the major and indie projects finally have the option to stay in Switzerland and work in a world-class mixing studio. The Room is situated

15 min from Geneva. Check the News...
